TORAH PORTION

Pinchas

PAGE: 686

G-d tells Moshe to inform Pinchas that Pinchas will receive G-d's "covenant of peace" as reward for his bold action - executing Zimri and the Midianite princess Kozbi. G-d commands Moshe to maintain a state of enmity with the Midianites who lured the Jewish People into sin. Moshe and Elazar are told to count the Jewish People. The Torah lists the names of the families in each tribe. The total number of males eligible to serve in the army is 601,730. G-d instructs Moshe how to allot the Land of Israel to Bnei Yisrael. The number of the Levites' families is recorded. Tzlofchad's daughters file a claim with Moshe. In the absence of a brother, they request their late father's portion in the Land. Moshe asks G-d for the ruling, and G-d tells Moshe that their claim is just. The Torah teaches the laws and priorities which determine the order of inheritance. G-d tells Moshe that he will ascend a mountain and view the Land that the Jewish People will soon enter, although Moshe himself will not enter. Moshe asks G-d to designate the subsequent leader, and G-d selects Yehoshua bin Nun. Moshe ordains Yehoshua as his successor in the presence of the entire nation. The Parsha concludes with special teachings of the service in the Beit Hamikdash.

Three Haftorahs of Punishment:

The three weeks from the 17th of Tammuz until the 9th of Av mark a period of mourning for the Jewish nation, as we relive and lament the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans in 69 CE. It begins with a fast on the 17th of Tammuz, when the walls of Jerusalem were breached by the Romans, and reaches its climax with another fast on 9th of Av, when the Temple was set aflame (many other tragedies befell us on that day as well).

The haftorahs of these three weeks, drawn from the books of Jeremiah and Isaiah, tell of G-d's disappointment with Israel's faithlessness, and the impending doom that would befall them if they would not mend their ways.

Humour:

A Highway patrolman pulled alongside a speeding car on the freeway. Glancing at the car, he was astounded to see that the blonde behind the wheel was knitting! Realizing that she was oblivious to his flashing lights and siren, the trooper cranked down his window, turned on his bullhorn and yelled, "PULL OVER!" "NO!" the blonde yelled back, "IT'S A SCARF!"

Thoughts:

- Be there for others...but never leave yourself behind...
- When I see lovers' name carved in a tree, I don't think it's sweet. I just think it's surprising how many people bring a knife on a date.
