TORAH PORTION

Vayeilech
(He went)

PAGE: 887

In this Torah portion, Moses concludes his speech to the Israelites, blesses Joshua, and instructs the community to gather every seven years to read publicly from the Torah. God predicts the eventual straying of the Israelites.

On this, the last day of his life, Moshe goes from tent to tent throughout the camp, bidding farewell to his beloved people, encouraging them to keep the faith. Moshe tells them that whether he is among them or not, G-d is with them, and will vanquish their enemies. Then he summons Joshua, and in front of all the people, urges him to be strong and courageous as the leader of the Jewish People. In this manner, he strengthens Joshua status as the new leader. Moshe teaches them the mitzvah of Hakhel: That every seven years on the first day of the intermediate days of Succos, the entire nation, including small children, is to gather together at the Temple to hear the King read from the Book of Devarim. The sections that he reads deal with faithfulness to G-d, the covenant, and reward and punishment. G-d tells Moshe that his end is near, and he should therefore summon Joshua to stand with him in the Mishkan, where G-d will teach Yehoshua. G-d then tells Moshe and Joshua that after entering the Land, the people will be unfaithful to Him, and begin to worship other gods. G-d will then completely hide his face, so that it will seem that the Jewish People are at the mercy of fate, and that they will be hunted by all. G-d instructs Moshe and Joshua to write down a song - Ha'azinu - which will serve as a witness against the Jewish People when they sin. Moshe records the song in writing and teaches it to Bnei Yisrael. Moshe completes his transcription of the Torah, and instructs the Levi'im to place it to the side of the Aron (Holy Ark), so that no one will ever write a new Torah scroll that is different from the original - for there will always be a reference copy.

Shabbat Shuva...

The Shabbat between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur is called Shabbat Shuvah, Shabbat of Return because its special haftarah reading begins with the words Shuvah Yisrael "Return O Israel," from the prophecy of Hosea. It is also referred to as Shabbat Teshuvah because it falls during the Ten Days of Repentance.

What Time Is It

There was once this fellow who did not own a watch. Whenever he wanted to know the time, he would simply ask someone. "Why don't you just buy a watch?" a coworker finally snapped at him after being asked one time too many.

"Why should I buy a watch, when I can simply ask!" "Well," asked his coworker, "What do you do in the middle of the night?" "I use a Shofar!" said the fellow.

"A Shofar?" "Yes. Whenever I want to know the time, I go to the window, I blow the Shofar, and all my neighbors start yelling, 'What are you doing? It's two in the morning!'"
