14th Day of the Omer

G-d instructs the kohanim to exercise extreme care when they enter the Mishkan. On Yom Kippur, the Kohen Gadol is to approach the holiest part of the Mishkan after special preparations and wearing special clothing. He brings offerings unique to Yom Kippur, including two identical goats that are designated by lottery. One is "for G-d" and is offered in the Temple, while the other is "for Azazel" in the desert. The Torah states the individual's obligations on Yom Kippur: On the 10th day of the seventh month, one must afflict oneself. We abstain from eating and drinking, anointing, wearing leather footwear, washing, and marital relations.

Consumption of blood is prohibited. The blood of slaughtered birds and undomesticated beasts must be covered. The people are warned against engaging in the wicked practices that were common in Egypt. Incest is defined and prohibited. Marital relations are forbidden during a woman's monthly cycle. Homosexuality, bestiality and child sacrifice are prohibited.

Joke...

Morris and Ruth have just celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. That night, as they are getting ready for bed, Morris looks carefully at Ruth. "What are you staring at?" Ruth asks. "Darling," he replies, "I've been thinking. When we got married 25 years ago, we lived in a small apartment, we drove a cheap car, we watched TV on a small 15 inch black and white television and we couldn't afford a proper bed so we had to make do with a sofa bed. However, despite all of that, I was proud to be sleeping with a sizzling 25 year old blonde. Now, however, we have a large house in Roslyn, we drive a Lexus, we have a 42 inch Sony LCD television set with everything and we have a king-sized water bed. But here's my problem - I'm now sleeping with a 50 year old woman. You're obviously not holding up your side of things and I don't know what to do."

Ruth, being a very reasonable and sensible lady, says to Morris, "I've got a solution to your problem, Morris. Go out and find a sizzling 25 year old blonde. When you find one, I'll make sure that you'll once again be living in a small apartment, driving a cheap car, sleeping on a sofa bed, and watching a 15 inch black and white television set."
