TORAH PORTION Shelach Lecha PAGE: 623

At the insistence of Bnei Yisrael, and with G-d's permission, Moshe sends 12 scouts, one from each tribe, to reconnoiter Canaan. Anticipating trouble, Moshe changes Hoshea's name to Yehoshua, expressing a prayer that G-d not let him fail in his mission. They return 40 days later, carrying unusually large fruit. When 10 of the 12 state that the people in Canaan are as formidable as the fruit, the men are discouraged. Calev and Yehoshua, the only two scouts still in favor of the invasion, try to bolster the people's spirit. The nation, however, decides that the Land is not worth the potentially fatal risks, and instead demands a return to Egypt. Moshe's fervent prayers save the nation from Heavenly annihilation. However, G-d declares that they must remain in the desert for 40 years until the men who wept at the scouts' false report pass away. A remorseful group rashly begins an invasion of the Land based on G-d's original command. Moshe warns them not to proceed, but they ignore this and are massacred by the Amalekites and Canaanites. G-d instructs Moshe concerning the offerings to be made when Bnei Yisrael will finally enter the Land. The people are commanded to remove challa, a gift for the kohanim, from their dough. The laws for an offering after an inadvertent sin, for an individual or a group, are explained. However, should someone blaspheme against G-d and be unrepentant, he will be cut off spiritually from his people. One man is found gathering wood on public property in violation of the laws of Shabbat and he is executed. The laws of tzitzit are taught. We recite the section about the tzitzit twice a day to remind ourselves of the Exodus.

Joke...

Rivky the matchmaker comes to see Lazer the ugly butcher.
 "What can I get for you today, Rivky? Maybe a nice brisket?"
 "No, Lazer, today I'm here for you!" "For me? Don't tell me, after all these years, you have a match for me?" "I do." "I can only imagine what she looks like." "Take a look at her picture."
 "Oh my goodness, she's beautiful!"

"Not only is she beautiful, but she's also rich! And you are going on a date with her Saturday night!"
 "Let me get this straight. You're telling me that even with my ugly face I'm going out with this beautiful woman, this Saturday night. And she's rich?" "Yes!"
 "Wow. She must be crazy." "Vell, you can't have everything."
