TORAH PORTION:

Ekev

PAGE 780

If Bnei Yisrael carefully observe even those "minor" mitzvot that are usually "trampled" underfoot, Moshe promises them that they will be the most blessed of the nations on earth. Moshe tells Bnei Yisrael that they will conquer Eretz Canaan little by little, so that the land will not be overrun by wild animals in the hiatus before Bnei Yisrael are able to organize and settle the whole land. After again warning Bnei Yisrael to burn all carved idols of Canaanite gods, Moshe stresses that the Torah is indivisible and not open to partial observance. Moshe describes the Land of Israel as a land of wheat, barley, grapes, figs, and pomegranates, a land of oil-yielding olives and date-honey. Moshe cautions Bnei Yisrael not to become haughty and think that their success in Eretz Yisrael is a result of their own powers or vigor; rather, it was Hashem who gave them wealth and success. Nor did Hashem drive out the Canaanites because of Bnei Yisrael's righteousness, but rather because of the sins of the Canaanites; for the road from Sinai had been a catalogue of large and small sins and rebellions against Hashem and Moshe. Moshe details the events after Hashem spoke the ten Commandments at Sinai, culminating in his bringing down the second set of Tablets on Yom Kippur. Aharon's passing is recorded as is the elevation of the levi'im to Hashem's ministers. Moshe points out that the 70 souls who went down to Egypt have now become like the stars of the heaven in abundance. After specifying the great virtues of the Land of Israel, Moshe speaks the second paragraph of the Shema, conceptualizing the blessings that accompany keeping mitzvot and the curse that results from non-observance.

RABBI YOSIL ROSENZWEIG (AH) SCHOLARSHIP FUND

A number of our members have expressed an interest in achieving a permanent memorial in our synagogue to Rabbi Yosil Rosenzweig (AH) who passed away on June 21st, 2023. For those of you who don't know, he was our Rabbi from 1989 to 1997 and although not born in Windsor, spent all his childhood and teenage years here. A Scholarship Fund has been suggested to be established in his name, the income of which would be used to encourage Jewish education, particularly in our religious school, which was always a priority with him, as he established a deep rapport with the students of our school while he was here. Any individual (or shared) donation of $1,000 or more can be recognised on our Scholarship Board in the hallway of our school. If a total of at least $10,000 is achieved, a larger ...Continued on next page → memorial plaque will also be placed on the appropriate donation board and will be permanently noted as a separate Scholarship Fund in our financial statement and records. We encourage our membership to honour his memory by not only contributing to this Fund, but by encouraging others who may not be aware of its existence to do so. As with all donations, tax deductible receipts will be issued and acknowledgements will be sent to the rabbi's survivors.

Jewish Humour...

1. Never take a front-row seat at a bris.
2. If you can't say something nice, say it in Yiddish.
3. The High Holidays have nothing to do with marijuana.
4. Never leave a restaurant empty-handed.
5. No meal is complete without leftovers.
6. After the destruction of the Second Temple, G-d created Loehmann's.
7. Israel is the land of milk and honey; Florida is the land of milk of magnesia.
8. Next year in Jerusalem. The year after, how about a nice cruise?
9. Spring ahead, fall back, winter in Miami.
10. Laugh now, but one day you'll be driving a Lexus and eating dinner at four in the afternoon.
11. There comes a time in every man's life when he must stand up and tell his mother that he is an Adult. This usually happens at around age 45.
