TORAH PORTION: Ki Tisa (When You Take) PAGE 352

The people of Israel are told to each contribute exactly half a shekel of silver to the Sanctuary. Instructions are also given regarding the making of the Sanctuary's water basin, anointing oil and incense. "Wise-hearted" artisans Betzalel and Aholiav are placed in charge of the Sanctuary's construction, and the people are once again commanded to keep the Shabbat.

When Moses does not return when expected from Mount Sinai, the people make a golden calf and worship it. G-d proposes to destroy the errant nation, but Moses intercedes on their behalf. Moses descends from the mountain carrying the tablets of the testimony engraved with the Ten Commandments; seeing the people dancing about their idol, he breaks the tablets, destroys the golden calf, and has the primary culprits put to death. He then returns to G-d to say: "If You do not forgive them, blot me out from the book that You have written."

G-d forgives, but says that the effect of their sin will be felt for many generations. At first G-d proposes to send His angel along with them, but Moses insists that G-d Himself accompany His people to the promised land.

Moses prepares a new set of tablets and once more ascends the mountain, where G-d reinscribes the covenant on these second tablets. On the mountain, Moses is also granted a vision of the divine thirteen attributes of mercy. So radiant is Moses' face upon his return, that he must cover it with a veil, which he removes only to speak with G-d and to teach His laws to the people.

Yankel's Paint Job

Chaim Yankel from Chelm was getting pretty desperate for money. He decided to go to the nicer, richer town nearby and look for odd jobs as a handy man. The first house he came to, a man answered the door and told Chaim Yankel, "Yeah, I have a job for you. How would you like to paint the porch?" "Sure that sounds great!" said Chaim Yankel. "Well, how much do you want me to pay you?" asked the man. "Is fifty bucks all right?" Chaim Yankel asked. Yeah, great. You'll find the paint and ladders you'll need in the garage." The man went back into his house to his wife who had been listening. "Fifty bucks! Does he know the porch goes all the way around the house?" asked the wife. "Well, he must, he was standing right on it!" her husband replied.

About 45 minutes later, Chaim Yankel knocked on the door. "I'm all finished," he told the surprised homeowner. The man was amazed. "You painted the whole porch?" "Yeah," Chaim Yankel replied, "I even had some paint left, so I put on two coats!" The man reached into his wallet to pay Chaim Yankel. "Oh, and by the way," said Chaim Yankel, "That's not a Porch, it's a Ferrari."
