Moses assembles the people of Israel and reiterates to them the commandment to observe the Shabbat. He then conveys G-d's instructions regarding the making of the Mishkan (Tabernacle). The people donate the required materials in abundance, bringing gold, silver and copper; blue-, purple- and red-dyed wool; goat hair, spun linen, animal skins, wood, olive oil, herbs and precious stones. Moses has to tell them to stop giving. A team of wise-hearted artisans make the Mishkan and its furnishings (as detailed in the previous Torah readings of Terumah, Tetzaveh and Ki Tisa): three layers of roof coverings; 48 gold-plated wall panels, and 100 silver foundation sockets; the parochet (veil) that separates between the Sanctuary's two chambers, and the masach (screen) that fronts it; the ark, and its cover with the cherubim; the table and its showbread; the seven-branched menorah with its specially prepared oil; the golden altar and the incense burned on it; the anointing oil; the outdoor altar for burnt offerings and all its implements; the hangings, posts and foundation sockets for the courtyard; and the basin and its pedestal, made out of copper mirrors.

Shabbat Shekalim

Shabbat Shekalim is one of the four special Shabbat's leading up to the Holiday of Pesach. Shabbat Shekalim is the first of the four in a chronological order. Shabbat Shekalim ("Sabbath [of] shekels") requests each adult male Jew contribute half of a Biblical shekel for the upkeep of the Tabernacle, or mishkan.

Joke...

The banker, Mr. Solomon, was swimming in the country club pool, when he got a cramp in his leg and started drowning.

"Help! Help!" he screamed.

The lifeguard swam to his rescue and shlepped him to shallow water.

"Mister, can you float alone?!" he asked.

"Boychick," gasped Solomon, "you picked some time to talk business!"

WHY? Why must I prove that I am me to pay my bills over the phone? Do strangers call to pay my Bills? And if they do, why don't you let them?
