TORAH PORTION: Tazria PAGE 460
(Conceives)

The Parshah of Tazria continues the discussion of the laws of tumah v'taharah, ritual impurity and purity. A woman giving birth should undergo a process of purification, which includes immersing in a mikvah (a naturally gathered pool of water) and bringing offerings to the Holy Temple. All male infants are to be circumcised on the eighth day of life.

Tzaraat (often mistranslated as leprosy) is a supra-natural plague, which can afflict people as well as garments or homes. If white or pink patches appear on a person's skin (dark red or green in garments), a kohen is summoned. Judging by various signs, such as an increase in size of the afflicted area after a seven-day quarantine, the kohen pronounces it tamei (impure) or tahor (pure).

A person afflicted with tzaraat must dwell alone outside of the camp (or city) until he is healed. The afflicted area in a garment or home must be removed; if the tzaraat recurs, the entire garment or home must be destroyed.

Joke...

Morris the new manager at the Goldman Leather Company felt it was time for a shake-up and is determined to rid the company of all slackers. On his first tour of the factory, he sees a young man leaning against a wall. The area is full of production workers and he thinks this is a good time to let them all know he means business.

Morris walks up to the man and asks, "How much money do you make a week?" The young man looks at Morris and replies, "I make $200 a week. Why do you want to know?"

Morris then hands the man $200 and shouts, "Here's a week's pay. Get out of here and don't let me see you here again."

Feeling pretty good about his first dismissal, Morris looks around and asks, "Does anyone want to tell me what that slacker did here?"

With a smile on his face, one of the workers replied, "He's the pizza delivery guy."

Go Figure...

How is it that we put man on the moon before we figured out it would be a good idea to put wheels on luggage?
