Bechukotai

The Torah promises prosperity for the Jewish People if they follow G-d's commandments. However, if they fail to live up to the responsibility of being the Chosen People, then chilling punishments will result. The Torah details the harsh historical process that will fall upon them when Divine protection is removed. These punishments, whose purpose is to bring the Jewish People to repent, will be in seven stages, each more severe than the last. Sefer Vayikra, the book of Leviticus, concludes with the details of erachin – the process by which someone vows to give the Beit Hamikdash the equivalent monetary value of a person, an animal or property.

Subject: Tombstone

A tombstone contains the Jewish names of the deceased in Hebrew, preceded by the letters פ"נ, which is an acronym for פה נטמן ("here lies"). Generally, Ashkenazim also include the father's name, and Sephardim include the mother's name, and it is not uncommon to include both. If the deceased was a Kohen or Levite, the father's name is used. The Jewish date of passing should also be included. It is traditional to write on the bottom תהא נפשוה צרורה בצרור החיים, which stands for "may his/her soul be bound in the bond of life." Avoid writing excessive or inaccurate praise of the deceased.

Joke...

The Rubin's arrive at a fancy high-rise hotel for the holiday weekend. They are bickering all the way through the lobby to front desk. They check into a room on the 25th floor. They come down to the pool, and they are constantly at each other, back and forth. Later that evening, in the dining room, they argue all throughout dinner. Finally, around 10 o'clock, Mrs. Rubin calls the front desk: "Hello, this is Mrs. Rubin on the 25th floor. My husband and I have been fighting all day, and now he wants to kill himself. Could you send someone up?"

The desk clerk answers, "I don't know who I could send, Mrs. Rubin, we don't have any social workers or counselors on staff".

"Counselors? Are you crazy? Send maintenance! He can't get the window open!"

Go figure...

Can a hearse carrying a corpse drive in the carpool lane?
