46th Day of the Omer

TORAH PORTION:	Bamidbar	PAGE 568
	(In the Desert/Wilderness)

This week's Parsha is from the first portion of the fourth book of the Torah, Numbers. The Book of Bamidbar — "In the Desert" — begins with G-d commanding Moshe to take a census of all men over age twenty — old enough for service. The count reveals just over 600,000. The levi'im are counted separately later because their service will be unique. They will be responsible for transporting the Mishkan and its furnishings and assembling them when the nation encamps. The 12 Tribes of Israel, each with its banner, are arranged around the Mishkan in four sections: east, south, west and north. Since Levi is singled out, the tribe of Yosef is split into two tribes, Ephraim and Menashe, so there will be four groups of three. When the nation travels, they march in a formation similar to the way they camp. A formal transfer is made between the first-born and the levi'im, whereby the levi'im take over the role the first-born would have had serving in the Mishkan if not for the sin of the golden calf. The transfer is made using all the 22,000 surveyed levi'im from one month old and up. Only levi'im between 30 and 50 will work in the Mishkan. The remaining first-born sons are redeemed with silver, similar to the way we redeem our first-born today. The sons of Levi are divided into three main families, Gershon, Kehat and Merari (besides the kohanim — the special division from Kehat's family). The family of Kehat carried the menorah, the table, the altar and the holy ark. Because of their utmost sanctity, the ark and the altar are covered only by Aharon and his sons, before the levi'im prepare them for travel.

Yizkor Service is this Thursday morning, June 13th.

What Shavuot Commemorates

The holiday is one of the Shalosh Regalim, the three Biblical pilgrimage festivals. The word Shavuot means weeks, and it marks the conclusion of the Counting of the Omer. Shavuot has a double significance. It marks the all-important wheat harvest in Israel and it commemorates the anniversary of the day when God gave the Torah to the nation of Israel assembled at Mount Sinai.

Joke...

An older Jewish man goes to a sex counselor complaining that sex with his wife has become stale and dull. When asked what they do, he explains that after the late night show, it is always the same position. The counselor gives the man the following advice. "Spice things up with variation." "Like what?" the man asks.

The counselor replies. "Well, tomorrow when you get home from work and your wife answers the door, throw her to the ground and take her right there on the spot. Get back to me and let me know how it went."

Two days later in their session the advisor asks how it went.

"Well, truthfully doctor, for us it was just about the same as always. But, I will admit, that her visiting ladies of Hadassah group really enjoyed it!"

Go Figure...
