The Torah assigns the exact Mishkan-related tasks to be performed by the families of Gershon, Kehat, and Merari, the sons of Levi. Completing the headcount of the Children of Israel taken in the Sinai Desert, a total of 8,580 Levite men between the ages of 30 and 50 are counted in a tally of those who will be doing the actual work of transporting the Tabernacle (Mishkan-temporary Sanctuary).

All those ritually impure are to be sent out of the encampments. If a person, after having sworn in court to the contrary, confesses that he wrongfully retained his neighbor's property, he has to pay an additional fifth of the base-price of the object and bring a guilt offering as atonement. If the claimant has already passed away without heirs, the payments are made to a kohen. In certain circumstances, a husband who suspects that his wife had been unfaithful brings her to the Temple. A kohen prepares a drink of water mixed with dust from the Temple floor and a special ink that was used for inscribing G-d's Name on a piece of parchment. If she is innocent, the potion does not harm her; rather it brings a blessing of children. If she is guilty, she suffers a supernatural death. A Nazir is one who vows to dedicate himself to G-d for a specific period of time. He must abstain from all grape products, grow his hair and avoid contact with corpses. At the end of this period he shaves his head and brings special offerings. The kohanim are commanded to bless the people. The Mishkan is completed and dedicated on the first day of Nisan in the second year after the Exodus. The prince of each tribe makes a communal gift to help transport the Mishkan, as well as donating identical individual gifts of gold, silver, animal and meal offerings.

Any man can be a father, but it takes someone special to be a Dad.

Happy Father's Day to all the Dads ☺.

Joke...

President Biden was very curious about how the Jewish people knew everything before he did. So he called the FBI and asked them to figure it out. One week later they came back and said, "Mr. President, the Jews have something called shabbos. They meet each other at the synagogue and use a code. They sit, they pray, and there is a word that is the key to this secret. This word is 'Nu?'. When one says to another, 'Nu?' the other tells him everything, every bit of news." Biden wanted to see this for himself. So the FBI dressed him like a Hassid and taught him to read from the right to the left of the siddur. Biden arrived at a synagogue on shabbos and sat beside Issy. He waited for a moment, and said, "Nu?" Issy answered, "Shh, don't talk now, Biden is coming."

Go Figure...

If paying a cashier a living wage will make prices go up, why doesn't replacing cashiers with Self Checkouts make prices go down??
