PARSHA (Torah): LEVITICUS 22:26 – 23:44

This Torah reading deals with Shabbos and the Yom Tovim. We are reminded of the kedusha, the holiness, of time. On these occasions we can cease from work and business, pause, and reflect on the true meaning of our life, and our relationship with Hashem.

HAFTORAH FIRST DAY: ZECHARIAH 14:1 – 21

The prophet Zechariah brings renewed hope to his people, when they were discouraged by the difficulties encountered in returning to Israel from the exile. In this last chapter, Zechariah proclaims the vision of Hashem's judgement on the enemies of Israel, and Israel's geulah, redemption.

HAFTORAH SECOND DAY: KINGS I 8:2 – 21

Shlomoh Hamelekh, King Solomon, dedicates the first Beis Hamikdash, Temple, in Jerusalem. This dedication extended over fourteen days, the last seven being the days of Sukkos.

Rabbi Herzl was visiting Mrs. Gold, an elderly member of his congregation. Rabbi Herzl said, "You know, my dear Mrs. Gold, that you are getting on in years and although I pray to the Almighty that he will grant you many more years in good health, you really should now be thinking more of the hereafter."

Mrs. Gold replied, "Thank you, Rabbi, but I am always thinking about the hereafter." Rabbi Herzl was rather surprised with this response.

Really? He said. Oh yes, Rabbi, every time I go upstairs, I say to myself, "What am I here after?" and every time I go into my kitchen, I say to myself, "What am I here after?"

"I do it all the time now."

Freda from Toronto was visiting some friends in Florida when she saw a little old man rocking merrily away on his porch. He had a lovely smile on his face. She just had to go over to him. "I couldn't help noticing how happy you look. I would love to know your secret for a long and happy life."

"I smoke four packs of cigarettes a day, drink five bottles of scotch whisky a week, eat lots of fatty foods and I never, I mean never, exercise."

"Why, that's amazing. I've never heard anything like this before. How old are you?"

"I'm 26," he replied.
