TORAH PORTION: Lech Lecha (Go Forth) PAGE 45

G-d speaks to Abram, commanding him, "Go from your land, from your birthplace and from your father's house, to the land which I will show you." "There", G-d says, "he will be made into a great nation." Abram and his wife, Sarai, accompanied by his nephew Lot, journey to the land of Canaan, where Abram builds an altar and continues to spread the message of a one G-d.

A famine forces the first Jew to depart for Egypt, where beautiful Sarai is taken to Pharaoh's palace; Abram escapes death because they present themselves as brother and sister. A plague prevents the Egyptian king from touching her, and convinces him to return her to Abram and to compensate the brother-revealed-as-husband with gold, silver and cattle.

Back in the land of Canaan, Lot separates from Abram and settles in the evil city of Sodom, where he falls captive when the mighty armies of Chedorlaomer and his three allies conquer the five cities of the Sodom Valley. Abram sets out with a small band to rescue his nephew, defeats the four kings, and is blessed by Malki-Zedek the king of Salem (Jerusalem).

G-d seals the Covenant Between the Parts with Abram, in which the exile and persecution (galut) of the people of Israel is foretold, and the Holy Land is bequeathed to them as their eternal heritage.

Still childless ten years after their arrival in the Land, Sarai tells Abram to marry her maidservant Hagar. Hagar conceives, becomes insolent toward her mistress, and then flees when Sarai treats her harshly; an angel convinces her to return, and tells her that her son will father a populous nation. Ishmael is born in Abram's eighty-sixth year.

Thirteen years later, G-d changes Abram's name to Abraham ("father of multitudes"), and Sarai's to Sarah ("princess"), and promises that a son will be born to them; from this child, whom they should call Isaac ("will laugh"), will stem the great nation with which G-d will establish His special bond. Abraham is commanded to circumcise himself and his descendants as a "sign of the covenant between Me and you." Abraham immediately complies, circumcising himself and all the males of his household.

FAMILY MATCH PROGRAM

Again this year, Jonathan Bruneau is seeking families interested in being matched with a struggling family. This year, he is organizing the program on behalf of The Salvation Army. The Salvation Army is in touch with many families of all faiths who have little or no money to make it through the new year. Last year, we were able to help many families and raised over $7,100.00 for 29 families through The Salvation Army. Providing sustenance for a family can start at $200 (tax receipts can be issued), for the entire family, plus whatever new clothing, unwrapped toys and non-perishable food items you wish to provide. Grocery gift cards are an excellent format for making a gift and supporting a family. If interested, please contact Congregation Shaar Hashomayim at shaar@mnsi.net / 519-256-3123 and we will notify Jonathan Bruneau until Monday, December 23rd, 2024. If donating by cheque, please make payable to: The Salvation Army Centre of Hope Windsor.

Joke...

An old Jewish man is sitting by the pool at Grossinger's Hotel in the Catskills, reading the Forverts Jewish newspaper, when an Italian gentleman comes over & asks him, "How's the water in pool?" The Jewish man answers in a very Yiddish accent, "Luk varm." The gentleman says, "Thank you", takes off his robe & dives headfirst into the pool. He comes out of the water, shivering like crazy and starts screaming at the old man. "How can you tell me, that it was lukewarm, when it's ice cold?" The old man answers, "It loked varm to me".
