34th Day of the Omer

TORAH PORTION: Emor (Speak) PAGE 513

The kohanim are commanded to avoid contact with corpses in order to maintain a high standard of ritual purity. They may attend the funeral of only their seven closest relatives: father, mother, wife, son, daughter, brother and unmarried sister. The kohen gadol (High Priest) may not attend the funeral of even his closest relatives. Certain marital restrictions are placed on the kohanim. The nation is required to honour the kohanim. The physical irregularities that invalidate a kohen from serving in the Temple are listed. Terumah, a produce tithe given to the kohanim, may be eaten only by kohanim and their household. An animal may be sacrificed in the Temple after it is eight days old and is free from any physical defects. The nation is commanded to sanctify the Name of G-d by insuring that their behavior is always exemplary, and by being prepared to surrender their lives rather than murder, engage in licentious relations or worship idols. The special characteristics of the holidays are described, and the nation is reminded not to do certain types of creative work during these holidays. New grain may not be eaten until the omer of barley is offered in the Temple. The Parsha explains the laws of preparing the oil for the menorah and baking the lechem hapanim (bread offering) in the Temple. A man blasphemes G-d and is executed as prescribed in the Torah.

Bad Jokes:

- A woman at the airport fainted and fell onto the baggage carousel. But she's slowly coming around now.
- Some people are like clouds. When they disappear, it's a beautiful day.
- No, the world is not full of stupid people...They're just strategically placed so that you will meet one every day.
- Sometimes I wonder what happened to the people who asked me for directions.
- I'm proud to say my house doesn't have any unhealthy snacks in it. Cause I ate them all.
- What do you call a typo in a headstone? A grave mistake.
- Back then dad had 3-4 kids. Nowadays kids have 3-4 dads. Climate change is crazy.

OFFICE CLOSED

The Shaar Office is CLOSED THIS Monday, May 19th, 2025.

Wishing all of our members a Safe and Happy Victoria Day Long Weekend ☺.
