Moses is taught the laws of the red heifer, whose ashes purify a person who has been contaminated by contact with a dead body.

After forty years of journeying through the desert, the people of Israel arrive in the wilderness of Zin. Miriam dies, and the people thirst for water. G-d tells Moses to speak to a rock and command it to give water. Moses gets angry at the rebellious Israelites and strikes the stone. Water issues forth, but Moses is told by G-d that neither he nor Aaron will enter the Promised Land.

Aaron dies at Hor Hahar and is succeeded in the high priesthood by his son Elazar. Venomous snakes attack the Israelite camp after yet another eruption of discontent in which the people "speak against G-d and Moses"; G-d tells Moses to place a brass serpent upon a high pole, and all who will gaze heavenward will be healed. The people sing a song in honour of the miraculous well that provided them water in the desert.

Moses leads the people in battles against the Emorite kings Sichon and Og (who seek to prevent Israel's passage through their territory) and conquers their lands, which lie east of the Jordan.

Joke...

A man bought a horse from a farmer for $250. The farmer agreed to deliver the horse the next day. The next day, the farmer drove up to the man's house and said: "Sorry, son, but I have some bad news. The horse died." The man replied: "Well, then just give me back my money." The farmer said: "Can't do that. I went and spent it already." The man said: "Ok, then just bring me the dead horse." The farmer asked: "What are you going to do with him?" The man said: "I'm going to raffle him off." The farmer said: "You can't raffle off a dead horse!" Donald said: "Sure I can! Watch me." A month later, the farmer met up with the man and asked: "What happened with that dead horse?" The man said: "I raffled him off. I sold 500 tickets at five dollars a piece and made a profit of $2,495." The farmer said: "Didn't anyone complain?" The man said: "Just the guy who won. So I gave him back his five dollars."

Thought of the day...

Behind every husband who thinks he wears the pants, is a wife who told him which pants to wear.

Pun of the day...

The inventor of the heat index has died. He was 88, but felt like 107.
