TORAH PORTION: Pinchas PAGE 686

Aaron's grandson Pinchas is rewarded for his act of zealotry in killing the Simeonite prince Zimri and the Midianite princess who was his paramour: G-d grants him a covenant of peace and the priesthood.

A census of the people counts 601,730 men between the ages of twenty and sixty. Moses is instructed on how the Land is to be divided by lottery among the tribes and families of Israel. The five daughters of Tzelafchad petition Moses that they be granted the portion of the land belonging to their father, who died without sons; G-d accepts their claim and incorporates it into the Torah's laws of inheritance.

Moses empowers Joshua to succeed him and lead the people into the Land of Israel. The Parshah concludes with a detailed list of the daily offerings, and the additional offerings brought on Shabbat, Rosh Chodesh (first of the month), and the festivals of Passover, Shavuot, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot and Shemini Atzeret.

Joke...

The rabbi greets the newest couple at his synagogue. "Welcome, my friends! Have you brought the children along?" "No, Rabbi, we don't have any kids..."

"Aha, then the Lord has sent you to me for a reason! What are your names?" "David and Esther Kaplan." The rabbi writes, "David and Esther Kaplan... there! I'm going to have this note flown to Jerusalem immediately and placed in the kotel (Western Wall) for a special blessing!" "Oh thank you, Rabbi, I hope it works." "Depend on the Lord, my dears!"

Five years later, the rabbi runs into Esther on the street. "Esther Kaplan! How are you? Haven't seen much of you lately. Tell me, did the Lord deliver a special blessing?" "Yes, Rabbi, we have 11 children now - one set of twins, and three sets of triplets." "Baruch Hashem! So many blessings! I must congratulate David. Is he at home?" "No, he's in Jerusalem." "Baruch Hashem! I should be so lucky. Is he there on business?" "No, he's at the kotel, trying to find the note with our names on it..."

Thought for the day...

Never regret being a good person, to the wrong people.

Your behavior says everything about you, and their behavior says enough about them.
