EREV TISHA B'AV

TORAH PORTION:	Devarim (Words)	PAGE 736
-----------------------	------------------------	-----------------

This Parsha begins the last of the Five Books of The Torah, Sefer Devarim. This Book is also called Mishneh Torah, "Repetition of the Torah" (hence the Greek/English title Deuteronomy). The Parsha begins with the sentence, "These are the words that Moses spoke unto all of Israel". Sefer Devarim relates what Moshe told Bnei Yisrael during the last five weeks of his life, as they prepared to cross the Jordan into Eretz Yisrael. Moshe reviews the mitzvot, stressing the change of lifestyle they are about to undergo: from the supernatural existence of the desert under Moshe's guidance to the apparently natural life they will experience under Yehoshua's leadership in the Land.

The central theme this week is the sin of the spies, the meraglim. The Parsha opens with Moshe alluding to the sins of the previous generation who died in the desert. He describes what would have happened if they hadn't sinned by sending spies into Eretz Yisrael. Hashem would have given them without a fight all the land from the Mediterranean to the Euphrates, including the lands of Ammon, Moav and Edom. He details the subtle sins that culminate in the sin of the spies, and reviews at length this incident and its results. The entire generation would die in the desert; Moshe would not enter Eretz Yisrael. He reminds them that their immediate reaction to Hashem's decree was to want to "go up and fight" to redress the sin. He recounts how they wouldn't listen when he told them not to go, that they no longer merited vanquishing their enemies miraculously. They ignored him and suffered a massive defeat. They were not allowed to fight with the kingdoms of Esav, Moav or Ammon these lands were not to be part of the map of Eretz Yisrael in the meantime. When the conquest of Canaan will begin with Sichon and Og, it will be via natural warfare.

Shabbat Chazon

Shabbat Chazon ("Sabbath [of] vision") takes its name from the Haftarah that is read on the Shabbat immediately prior to the mournful fast of Tisha B'Av, from the words of rebuke and doom coming from Isaiah in the Book of Isaiah 1:1-27. It is also referred to as the Black Sabbath due to its status as the saddest Shabbat of the year (as opposed to the White Sabbath, Shabbat Shuvah, immediately preceding Yom Kippur).

Tisha B'Av

Tisha B'Av, which is the ninth day of the month of Av in the Jewish calendar (Begins this evening). It is a day to remember various events such as the destruction of the First Temple and Second Temple in Jerusalem. Tisha B'Av shares the following five prohibitions: No eating or drinking; No washing or bathing; No application of creams or oils; No wearing of (leather) shoes; No marital (sexual) relations. The Book of Lamentations, which mourns the destruction of Jerusalem is read in the synagogue, followed by the recitation of kinnot (sad poems), liturgical somber songs that lament the loss of the Temples and Jerusalem.

KIDDUSH

The Congregation is invited to the Charles Zalev Social Hall for Kiddush following the service. The Kiddush this Shabbat is sponsored by Congregation Shaar Hashomayim.

To sponsor a Kiddush, please call the Shaar Office at 519-256-3123 or email shaar@mnsi.net

SUNDAY MORNING MINYAN

There will be a Sunday Morning Minyan this Sunday at 8:30 am.

Joke...

So, Schwartz gets called up for Hagbah one Shabbat and nearly drops the Sefer Torah. Fortunately, the Gabbai's were able to bolster Schwartz and prevent both him and the Torah from falling. Schwartz is horribly embarrassed and decides he's going to pump himself up so that he won't fall next time he gets called up. He works out for months so he's ready next time. Shabbat comes around and he gets called up. He does a six column Hagbah and surprises himself. He turns to the Gabbai and says, "See? I worked out and did a perfect Hagbah". The Gabbai says, "That's great, but we called you up for Shishi!"

Thought for today:

Silence doesn't always mean you have nothing to say. It may mean you realize that no matter what you say, it won't change anything.

The Shaar Office will be CLOSED THIS Monday, August 4th for Civic Holiday and THIS Wednesday, August 6th.

Wishing all of our members and friends a safe and happy Civic Holiday Long Weekend ☺.
