TU B'AV

TORAH PORTION: Ve'Ethchanan (And I Pleaded)

PAGE 755

Moses tells the people of Israel how he implored G-d to allow him to enter the Land of Israel, but G-d refused, instructing him instead to ascend a mountain and see the Promised Land. Continuing his "review of the Torah," Moses describes Exodus from Egypt and the Giving of the Torah, declaring them unprecedented events in human history. "Has there ever occurred this great thing, or has the likes of it ever been heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of G-d speaking out of the midst of the fire...and live?...You were shown, to know, that the L-rd is G-d...there is none else beside Him."

Moses predicts that in future generations the people will turn away from G-d, worship idols, and be exiled from their land and scattered amongst the nations; but from there they will seek G-d, and return to obey His commandments.

Our Parshah also includes a repetition of the Ten Commandments, and the verses of the Shema, which declare the fundamentals of the Jewish faith: the unity of G-d ("Hear O Israel: the L-rd our G-d, the L-rd is one"); the mitzvot to love G-d, to study His Torah, and to bind "these words" as tefillin on our arms and heads, and inscribe them in the mezuzot affixed on the doorposts of our homes.

Shabbat Nachamu

Shabbat Nachamu ("Sabbath of comfort/ing") takes its name from the haftarah from Isaiah in the Book of Isaiah 40:1-26 that speaks of "comforting" the Jewish people for their suffering. It is the first of seven haftarahs of consolation leading up to the holiday of Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year.

Joke...

Ira brings his friend Shmuel to the house for dinner, unannounced. Ira's wife is furious when her husband walks in with his buddy at 7pm. "Ira, what are you thinking?! I'm in pajamas, my hair and makeup aren't done, the house is a mess, and I can't be bothered with cooking right now. What's wrong with you?!" Ira replies, "Shmuel is thinking about getting married and I promised him a demo."

Joke...

Mrs. Goldenberg got a ticket for running a red light and came to court to fight it. When asked for her occupation, she said that she was a schoolteacher. Judge Rosenbaum recognized the old teacher and said, "Mrs. Goldenberg, do you remember me?" Mrs. Goldenberg thought about it for a moment, squinted and said, "Little Heshy Rosenbaum, is that you?" "It's Harry, Mrs. Goldenberg," the judge said. "Your Honor, actually." "Look at you, all grown up," Mrs. Goldenberg smiled sweetly, hoping that her former student would help her with her ticket. "I've been waiting so many years to see you in court," Judge Rosenbaum said. "I am so glad to hear it," said Mrs. Goldenberg. "So the good news is that I am going to waive the fee on your ticket." "Thank you so much Heshy, I mean, Your Honor, that's very nice of you." "The bad news is that I want you to sit down at that table right now and write: 'I will not run through a red light' five hundred times!!"

The Shaar Office is CLOSED THIS Wednesday, August 13th.
