SATURDAY, JULY 4, 2026 19 TAMUZ 5786
Parshas Pinchas
PARSHA – Pg. 686 HAFTORAH – Pg. 710

TORAH PORTION: Pinchas PAGE 686

G-d tells Moshe to inform Pinchas that Pinchas will receive G-d's "covenant of peace" as reward for his bold action - executing Zimri and the Midianite princess Kozbi. G-d commands Moshe to maintain a state of enmity with the Midianites who lured the Jewish People into sin. Moshe and Elazar are told to count the Jewish People. The Torah lists the names of the families in each tribe. The total number of males eligible to serve in the army is 601,730. G-d instructs Moshe how to allot the Land of Israel to Bnei Yisrael. The number of the Levites' families is recorded. Tzlofchad's daughters file a claim with Moshe. In the absence of a brother, they request their late father's portion in the Land. Moshe asks G-d for the ruling, and G-d tells Moshe that their claim is just. The Torah teaches the laws and priorities which determine the order of inheritance. G-d tells Moshe that he will ascend a mountain and view the Land that the Jewish People will soon enter, although Moshe himself will not enter. Moshe asks G-d to designate the subsequent leader, and G-d selects Yehoshua bin Nun. Moshe ordains Yehoshua as his successor in the presence of the entire nation. The Parsha concludes with special teachings of the service in the Beit Hamikdash.

Three Haftorahs of Punishment:
The three weeks from the 17th of Tammuz until the 9th of Av mark a period of mourning for the Jewish nation, as we relive and lament the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans in 69 CE. It begins with a fast on the 17th of Tammuz, when the walls of Jerusalem were breached by the Romans, and reaches its climax with another fast on 9th of Av, when the Temple was set aflame (many other tragedies befell us on that day as well). The haftorahs of these three weeks, drawn from the books of Jeremiah and Isaiah, tell of G d's disappointment with Israel's faithlessness, and the impending doom that would befall them if they would not mend their ways.

JOKE...

Hospital regulations require a wheelchair for patients being discharged. However, while working as a student nurse, I found one elderly gentleman already dressed and sitting on the bed with a suitcase at his feet, who insisted he didn't need my help to leave the hospital. After a chat about rules being rules, he reluctantly let me wheel him to the elevator. On the way down I asked him if his wife was meeting him.

"I don't know," he said. "She's still upstairs in the bathroom changing out of her hospital gown."
