Parshas Ki Tavo

PARSHA – Pg. 859

HAFTORAH – Pg. 874

TORAH PORTION: Ki Tavo (When you come) PAGE 859

Moses instructs the people of Israel: When you enter the land that G-d is giving to you as your eternal heritage, and you settle it and cultivate it, bring the first-ripened fruits (bikkurim) of your orchard to the Holy Temple, and declare your gratitude for all that G-d has done for you.

The Parshah also includes the laws of the tithes given to the Levites and to the poor, and detailed instructions on how to proclaim the blessings and the curses on Mount Gerizim and Mount Eival—as discussed in the beginning of the Parshah of Re'eh. Moses reminds the people that they are G-d's chosen people, and that they, in turn, have chosen G-d.

The latter part of Ki Tavo consists of the Tochachah ("Rebuke"). After listing the blessings with which G-d will reward the people when they follow the laws of the Torah, Moses gives a long, harsh account of the bad things—illness, famine, poverty and exile—that shall befall them if they abandon G-d's commandments.

Moses concludes by telling the people that only today, forty years after their birth as a people, have they attained "a heart to know, eyes to see and ears to hear."

Joke...

Sadie walked into a print lab to have a photo of her deceased husband, Moshe, copied and retouched. She said to the technician, "I have always hated the hat my husband Moshe is wearing in the photo. Could you please retouch the hat out?" "Of course", said the technician, "what colour hair did your husband have?" "When you take the hat off, you'll see", she said.
