TORAH PORTION:

Re'eh (See)

PAGE 799

Moshe presents to the nation the blessing of a spiritually-oriented life, and the curse of becoming disconnected from Hashem. When the nation enters Eretz Yisrael, they must burn down any trees that had been used for idol-worship and destroy all idolatrous statues. Hashem will choose only one place where the Divine Presence will dwell. Offerings may be brought only there; not to a private altar. Moshe repeatedly warns against eating animal blood. In the desert, all meat was slaughtered in the Mishkan, but in Eretz Yisrael meat may be shechted anywhere. Moshe lists the categories of food that may be eaten only in Jerusalem. He warns the nation against copying ways of the other nations. Since the Torah is complete and perfect, nothing may be added to or subtracted from it. If a "prophet" tells the people to permanently abandon a Torah law or indulge in idol worship, he is to be put to death. One who entices others to worship idols is to be put to death. A city of idolatry must be razed. It is prohibited to show excessive signs of mourning, such as marking the skin or making a bald spot. Moshe reiterates the classifications of kosher and non-kosher food and the prohibition of cooking meat and milk. Produce of the second tithe must be eaten in Jerusalem, and if the amount is too large to carry, it may be exchanged for money with which food is bought in Jerusalem. In certain years this tithe is given to the poor. Bnei Yisrael are instructed to always be open-hearted, and in the seventh year, any loans must be discounted; Hashem will bless the person in all ways. A Jewish bondsman is released after six years, and must be sent away with generous provisions. If he refuses to leave, his ear is pierced with an awl at the door post and he remains a bondsman until the Jubilee Year. The Parsha ends with a description of the three pilgrimage festivals of Pesach, Shavuot and Succot.

SHAAR HASHOMAYIM FEATURED IN NEW MUSEUM WINDSOR EXHIBIT

Congregation Shaar Hashomayim has been featured in a brand-new exhibit, "Buildings That Still Are", at the Chimczuk Museum, 401 Riverside Dr. W. The exhibit celebrates 41 architectural landmarks across the city that are still standing.

'Buildings That Still Are' highlights the heritage of our built environment, by examining structures that have withstood the test of time in our city. In this exhibit, you will see a selection of buildings, including schools, churches, family homes, apartment buildings and former entertainment venues that still exist across Windsor and stand out due to their historical and/or architectural nature. This exhibit also examines the tools the City of Windsor has implemented to help preserve historical buildings, including heritage conservation districts and the listing and designation of buildings on the Windsor Municipal Heritage Register. Standard admission rates apply to enter the Chimczuk Museum.
Please go to <https://www.citywindsor.ca/residents/culture/windsors-community-museum/chimczuk-museum> for more information.

KIDDUSH

 The Congregation is invited to the Charles Zalev Social Hall for Kiddush following the service. The Kiddush this Shabbat is sponsored by the Zalev Family, in memory of beloved uncle, Floyd Zalev (AH).

SUNDAY MORNING MINYAN

There will be a Sunday Morning Minyan this Sunday, August 9th at 8:30 am.

LIFE & LEGACY

 How will you assure Jewish tomorrows? Be remembered forever with a gift to Congregation Shaar Hashomayim in your will, trust, retirement account, or life insurance policy. It's easier than you think! Contact Shaar Hashomayim at 519-256-3123 or shaar@mnsi.net to learn how to create your legacy.

Japanese Marital Problem

Two Japanese businessmen are talking during their afternoon dip in the hot baths at the Geisha House. The first businessman says "Hiroo-san, I have some unpleasant news for you. Your wife is dishonoring you."
Hiroo-san can't believe what he hears and asks for more information. "It is as I said, Hiroo-san. Your wife is dishonoring you, and she is doing it with a foreigner of the Jewish faith." Shocked, Hiroo-san decides to go home and confront his wife. He faces her and says, "I am told that you are dishonoring me with a foreigner of the Jewish faith." She replies, "That is a lie! Where did you hear such mishigas?"
